

SAVE EDGEWATER

The Lake Must Not Be Fenced In or Sheridan Road Used as a Garage.

The Gang is reported to be fencing in the lake up in Edgewater, so that public access to the lake shore is denied to citizens, rich and poor alike. These fences should be torn down by the city or the Lincoln Park board. Immediate adoption of the plan agreed upon by the Chicago plan commission and the city council's committee on harbors looking toward a comprehensive development of the lake front so it can be of use to everybody for bathing beaches and other purposes is advocated in a statement issued by Charles H. Wacker, chairman of the commission. He urges the people of Chicago to learn a lesson from the hot wave.

Commenting upon these encroachments on the rights of the people the Daily News said editorially: "What a blessing to the people of Chicago these facilities for health-giving recreation would have proved if they had been in existence at the time of the recent prolonged period of excessive heat. Surely it ought to be possible to settle speedily the differences that are productive of such serious loss to the people." Using Sheridan Road for a garage in the vicinity of Balmoral avenue causes Edgewater residents to be rightfully indignant at the Auto Gang's antics. Lake Michigan belongs to the people. Edgewater residents are not included, however. The waters of the lake are being barred from all, rich and poor alike. No wonder there is a feeling of indignation over the matter. Great indignation is felt in Edgewater over the action of certain people in shutting the public off from the lake shore. The park board is blamed.

PEOPLE ARE

WITH HOYNE

State's Attorney Macley Hoyne is out with a statement announcing his candidacy for re-election. His platform is to be, he asserts, the record of his achievements during the last four years, and on this record he asks the voters to assist him. His statement follows:

"I have decided to be a candidate for re-election as state's attorney, and to that end shall seek a renomination from the Democratic party at the September primary.

"This conclusion results chiefly from the advice and assurances of support I have received from over 1,000 citizens of different political parties, who are leaders in business, labor, professional and civic affairs. They inform me they will soon elect officers and organize for an energetic campaign.

"I regret that the existing election laws make it necessary for candidates for State's Attorney and other municipal offices to seek a partisan nomination. National politics and policies, and politics generally, should have not the slightest connection with the office of State's Attorney and such offices. Since the election in 1912 I have conducted the State's Attorney's office on this theory. Upon the record made during this period I stand.

"I ask the aid and votes of the voters of the Democratic party at the September primary upon that record, regardless of their previous factional connections, sympathies or activities.

"My determination to be a candidate is and will remain, unaffected by the action, desires or wishes of any individual, or group of individuals, assuming to give orders to the mass of the party voters of this county or to myself.

"I feel it necessary to say this because of silly newspaper articles to the effect that certain Democratic leaders were organizing a local 'Tammany' and that candidates for party nominations in this county would be compelled by a pledge to turn over the power of appointment and other patronage of the offices they sought to some committee or group of leaders.

"I never have nor will I ever sign, give or make such a pledge, or any pledge whatever other than that I make in public to the voters of Cook County. I disclaim any intention or desire, singly or jointly, to Tammanyize any official or private citizen, and I know that I will permit no one to familiarize me or any office I ever hold or hope to hold."

"I recognize," he said, "under the existing election laws, the legality and propriety of each political party choosing a county central committee, and that committees have certain powers and duties to perform.

"Although the nomination of candidates for State's Attorney and county officers generally is not one of the functions of the county central committee, and although its endorsement or failure to endorse binds neither the voters of the party nor the candidate, I realize the county central committee, through its reorganization, can give greatest aid to a candidate for nomination.

"Having this in mind, and subject to what has been said above, I shall seek the aid and endorsement of my candidacy for nomination from the present duly elected county central committee of the Democratic party, and hope, upon my record in office, I may receive it.

"I have referred to my record in office, so in conclusion let me say that this record is not one of drastic, harsh and relentless prosecutions. No public official or private citizen, minister, priest or rabbi ever asked leniency or mercy for the young, ignorant, poor or misguided first offender in vain. It is to the habitual criminal and betrayer of public trust alone that a deaf ear has been turned."
